MY BOARD SERVICE WITH CTNC HAS BEEN ONE OF THE MOST DEEPLY REWARDING ENDEAVORS OF MY LIFE TO DATE. CONSERVING NORTH CAROLINA'S LAND, RIVERS AND ECOSYSTEMS IS TRULY 'LEGACY' WORK — THE KIND THAT ENDURES BEYOND OUR LIFETIMES ON EARTH. THERE IS PERPETUAL JOY IN CONSERVATION WORK.

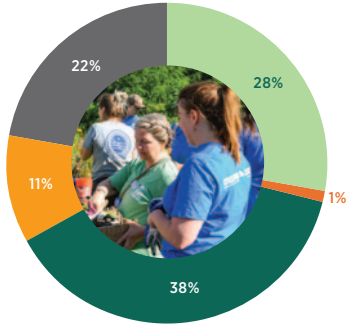

BRANDON ROBINSON, IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT

We are grateful to the CTNC community of supporters for your steadfast support.

CONSERVE CTNC leverages your gifts and government support to conserve land, and provide grants and loans to other land trusts, making more conservation wins possible. This is restricted revenue, not available for operations. Over the 23-24 fiscal year, our land protection team used these funds to conserve mature forests, untrammled wildlife habitat, and scenic views along both the Blue Ridge Parkway and the nearby Mountains-to-Sea Trail. CTNC also provided 3 loans to 2 partners totaling $1,616,980 and awarded $90,572 in small grants to 4 partner land trusts. A list of awardees can be found on the back cover.

COLLABORATE CTNC helps lead, and is the financial administrator for, the Land for Tomorrow Coalition. Locking arms with 30 other land trusts and NC environmental organizations, the coalition lobbies the NC General Assembly to strengthen public funding and policies that support the conservation of our state's precious streams, rivers, forests and working farms. We are celebrating a huge win with the re-passage of the NC Conservation Tax Credit for donated easements, which we achieved through bipartisan legislative advocacy. CTNC continued to work alongside the NC Department of Environmental Quality to ensure that low-resource communities suffering the severest impacts of flooding benefit from planning and funding resources being made available through the state's emerging flood resilience Blueprint.

BUILD COMMUNITY

Resilience Corps NC, CTNC's statewide AmeriCorps program, helped build flood resilience, decrease urban heat, mitigate wildfire threats, and increase enthusiasm for conservation.

24 service members placed in 48 counties. Mobilized 1,114 volunteers. Engaged 22,842 North Carolinians through environmental education and outreach events. Removed 786 lbs. of sediment from the Cape Fear River. And supported 15 grant applications on behalf of local communities to bolster resilience work.

I WAS DRIVEN TO CONSERVATION BY MY LOVE FOR NORTH CAROLINA'S MOUNTAINS AND MY DESIRE TO ACTIVELY PROTECT SOMETHING I TRULY CHERISH. FORTUNATELY, CTNC'S MODEL IS REPLICABLE. THE LESSONS WE'VE LEARNED OVER THIRTY YEARS CAN BE APPLIED ACROSS THE STATE TO CONSERVE LAND AND STRENGTHEN VULNERABLE COMMUNITIES.
